THE WORLD IS THE REAL SCHOOL

FRAMEWORK

The logo for the L2Q framework consists of three large, 3D-style characters: a green 'L', a yellow '2', and a blue 'Q'.

Learn to Question (L2Q)

is a structured framework for questioning information, examining evidence, and understanding behaviour and incentives in the real-world environment

INFRASTRUCTURE

World Education Online (WEO)

provides the educational infrastructure — books, materials, videos, and resources designed to help people learn directly from the real-world environment.

MOVEMENT

The logo for the Q2L movement consists of three large, 3D-style characters: a blue 'Q', a yellow '2', and a green 'L'.

Question to Learn (Q2L)

is the movement that shares questioning materials so others — especially children — can receive them and learn to question the world around them.
